2013 Salmon Days Festival

Come to Issaquah, October 4-6

Chocolate candy made right before your eyes

In 1942, Julius Boehm and friend George Tedlock opened their first Candy Kitchen in the Ravenna area of Seattle. Julius drew upon the wisdom of his grandfather, a pastry chef to perfect the European line of confections while a mutual friend, candy maker Cecil Hall, helped refine the American line of chocolates.

In 1956, Julius moved Boehm's Candies to the Issaquah foothills. Today, Bernard Garbusjuk carries on the legacy of Julius Boehm as owner and operator of Boehm's Candies. Bernard and Julius both immigrated to the United States from Europe uniting them in a special bond. For nearly 10 years prior to Julius' death in 1981, Bernard worked closely under Julius. During this time, he not only learned the special recipes of Boehm's confections, but also grew to love and appreciate the unique history and charm that makes Boehm's Candies the attraction that it is today.

Bernard not only comes from a long line of Austrian candy makers, giving him the innate ability to learn the delicate craft of chocolate making, but also underwent extensive culinary training in Germany. After working as Julius' assistant, Bernard became head candy maker, running the daily production. To this day, as owner of Boehm's Candies, he continues to work closely with the candy makers, developing new confections and jumping back into the kitchen as a candy maker when needed.

Boehm's Candies is truly a place of tradition. Most of the staff have been with the company for over 15 years. Bernard is now passing this legacy on to his children, Tyson and Narissa, who are learning the company just as he did - from the ground up.

You can tour this unique candy factory as a participant and packet holder of the Issaquah Salmon Days Festival. Join the Royal Rosarian group heading north next weekend. Prime Minister Gayle will be there. The Traveling Float will be there and we hope you will be there too. Call Out-of-town chair Vicky Rice to get on board (503-282-8471).

Oregon Zoo Rose Planting and Garden Dedication

Wednesday,
September 18

Directly across the tracks from where passengers load onto the Oregon Zoo Train, this plaque sits at the base of a gently sloping hill. Mid way up the hill, the Rosarians planted a rose last week to honor the Zoo's "Packy Award" Winner as Volunteer of the Year.

It was a great turn out for this rose garden dedication and Royal Rosarian Rose Planting ceremony. A trial run in the parking lot assured that all Rosarians would find their precise place and look sharp as they maneuvered the intricacies of this new Rose garden. You would have been proud.

Although development of the garden is still in its early stages, you can see that it is a great location and presents lots of possibilities. 25 Rose bushes were donated and planted to get the garden underway. Zoo crews worked diligently to prepare the site for this event but rock walls and garden paths are planned for the future.

Announcements

For The Good of the Royal Rosarians Participation Opportunity at Centennial High School

For those of you who are not going to Leavenworth for the Autumn Festival, we have another opportunity for you to spread the goodwill of the Royal Rosarians.

The Student Body President of Centennial High School, Jacque Nelson, has invited the Royal Rosarians to march in the CHS Homecoming Parade to be held on Friday, Sept. 27. (Prime Minister Gayle has approved our participation.) Congressman Earl Blumenaur, a graduate of CHS, is scheduled to be the Grand Marshal.

The parade starts at 5:45 pm. Parade formation is at 5:15 pm on the playground of Lynch Wood Elementary School, 3615 SE 174th Avenue (between Division and Powell). The parade route is about ten blocks long through the neighborhood on SE Haig Drive to 182nd Avenue, then back through the Centennial property to the football field, so it's about three quarters of a mile altogether. We are welcome to remain at the stadium for other festivities and the football game, if we wish.

We need two banner carriers and about eight to ten marchers in order to make a credible appearance, so please help us out. To the best of my knowledge this is a new experience for us and will get our organization in front of a brand new audience.

Dress code is whites, capes, hats, gloves. (Dames wear pants.) Please let Marilyn Schultz know if you can participate.

VIP Send Off Ceremony for Korean Vets

This Sunday, September 29th there will be an opportunity for Royal Rosarians to show their support at an airport send off of six Korean War veterans as they depart for a trip to Ulsan, Korea. The city of Ulsan has invited them back to be honored for their heroic efforts during the war. The six veterans are from all parts of Oregon. Rosarians will meet at 12:15 p.m at the Sheraton Airport Hotel. Whites, hats, gloves and capes are appropriate attire. Ladies should wear skirts. Call Marilyn Schultz with any questions since she will be representing the Prime Minister who will be with a large group of Rosarians in Leavenworth.

Jim Nielson's Truisms

This Issue's "Truism"

"Those who think religion has nothing to do with politics understand neither religion or politics."

-- Mahatma Gandhi

(The late Jim Nielson, Prime Minister in 1979, was famous for his "truisms" which he happily shared in each issue of the Royal Update from its launch in 2005 until his death in 2011. Jim was knighted under the rose Sutter's Gold, pictured. Truisms now are either from Jim's archives or are quotations Duke Peter thinks Jim would like. If you'd like to suggest a quotation please email it to Peter.)
