Royal Update

e-newsletter of the Royal Rosarians

Greetings, Rosarians and Friends,

Thanks for reading this issue of the e-newsletter of the Royal Rosarians produced by Duke Peter Glazer and Sir Knight Tom Marantette. If you have suggestions or contributions for the Royal Update, please contact Tom (tjm@atiyehbros.com) or Peter (pkglazer@aol.com).

Astoria Regatta Rose Planting and Parade

Saturday, August 8

Plan now to join Prime Minister Marilyn, Queen Kahedja, the Traveling Float and a healthy contingent of Rosarian marchers as we participate in the Astoria Regatta Grand Land Parade two weeks from this Saturday.

Ride the bus and leave the driving to us. We will meet at Sunset Presbyterian Church at 7:15 a.m. so as to arrive in Astoria in time for the 9:30 a.m. Rose Planting at the Flavel House. The Grand Land Parade will start at 12:00 noon.

Following the parade, the bus will deliver us to the home of Rick and Marie Saturn in Seaside for a Rosarian social gathering before returning to Portland.

Sign up on the Royal Rosarian web site. Chris Casteel will email you the week of the event to confirm you will be riding the bus. Your credit card will be billed the day before the trip is to leave Portland. The cost is $25 per person.

Located 14 miles from the mouth of the river, the bridge is 4.1 miles long and was the last completed segment of U.S. Route 101 between Olympia, Washington, and Los Angeles, California. It is the longest continuous truss bridge in North America. It opened July 29, 1966.*

New Member Knighting

by Dave and Connie
Shipley

Saturday, August 22

Please join us on Saturday, August 22 for a meaningful gathering of old friends and the opportunity to make wonderful new friends.

This is probably your best chance during the whole month of August to have a fun, formal evening, so be sure to take advantage of it. With a beautiful ceremony, dinner and dancing to the great music of the One Brick Shy Band, you will really enjoy the New Member Knighting this year.

Your co-chairs, Dave and Connie Shipley, and their hard working committee members look forward to you sending your registration to Pam Baker soon. We will see you at the Sheraton Airport Hotel at 5:30 pm to start the evening off with cocktails. Thanks you.

Two Rose Plantings for the Price of One!

Thursday, July 30

image: the first Oregon Zoo Rose Planting was well attended by Rosarians, dignitaries and even a few local tenants. This will be the fourth annual event.

The Oregon Zoo

Join Prime Minister Marilyn and the Rosarian Council as they conduct our traditional Royal Rosarian Rose Planting at the Oregon Zoo. This annual event recognizes the outstanding ZooGuides for this past year. This year's honorees will be Wendy Doerner and Kathy Street who have combined for 12 years of service and have contributed over 4200 hours to the Oregon Zoo as volunteers..

The Planting will begin at 10:00 a.m. and Rosarians are asked to gather at the Zoo entrance by 9:40 a.m. Whites with hats, capes and gloves will be the appropriate attire and Dames should wear pants.

Oregon Society of Artists

Upon completion of the first Rose Planting the group will travel to nearby Oregon Society of Artists where a second Rose Planting will be conducted. The site for this event is at 2185 SW Park Place in Portland. The ceremony will begin at 11:30 a.m. and light refreshments will be served following that ceremony.

The Oregon Society of Artists has supported the Rose Festival Foundation for over 80 years. They put on the annual Rose Festival Art Show for 6 weeks during Rose Festival. Last year they commissioned an oil painting of our 100th Rose Festival Queen Emma, which now hangs in the Rose Festival Office. They will also be doing one of Queen Kahedja this year. We will be honoring their President Mary Holt and the artist who will be painting Queen Kahedja's picture.

Contact Royal Gardener Doxie McCaw-Cook for more information.

Battle Ground Parade

Meanwhile, the troops marched in formation behind the Saturn vehicle with the traveling float and Queen Kahedja bringing up the rear. It was a morning parade in Battle Ground and temperatures were moderate. Those traveling on to Olympia felt the effects of increased temperatures in their late afternoon parade.

Jim Nielson's Truisms

This Issue's "Truism"

"Life's most persistent and urgent question is 'What are you doing for others?'"

-- Martin Luther King, Jr.

(The late Jim Nielson, Prime Minister in 1979, was famous for his "truisms" which he happily shared in each issue of the Royal Update from its launch in 2005 until his death in 2011. Jim was knighted under the rose Sutter's Gold, pictured. Truisms now are either from Jim's archives or are quotations Duke Peter thinks Jim would like. If you'd like to suggest a quotation please email it to Peter.)
