Royal Update

e-newsletter of the Royal Rosarians

Greetings, Rosarians and Friends,

Thanks for reading this issue of the e-newsletter of the Royal Rosarians produced by Duke Peter Glazer and Sir Knight Tom Marantette. If you have suggestions or contributions for the Royal Update, please contact Tom (tjm@atiyehbros.com) or Peter (pkglazer@aol.com).

Sandy Days Parade

This Thursday, July 10

Come toward the mountain and enjoy a true hometown parade. Horses, antique cars, floats, and of course, our own Royal Rosarian Marching Unit. This traditional parade will be held Thursday, July 10th starting at 7:00 p.m. Rosarians will want to attend the Rose Planting ceremony to be performed at 5:00 p.m. with a light dinner served to Rosarians at approximately 5:30 p.m. after the presentation of their court.

Rosarian spouses/partners are needed to carry the banner and/or flags. Tan pants or shorts with a red shirt or jacket are the preferred colors.

Ride Rosie
Saturday, July 19
2013 Prime Minister Gayle Whitehurst and
First Squire Ed stand atop the Traveling Float as they led an enthusiastic group of Rosarians past
the Washington State Capital (see the dome) in the

Olympia Lakefair parade last year.

Take advantage of the best bargain that the Royal Rosarians can offer you. On Saturday, July 19, we are attending two parades in one day. To make matters easier, we are riding Rosie the bus to both parades in Olympia and Battle Ground. For just $10 per rider, you can attend these two parades, while riding in comfort and enjoying the hospitality of your fellow Rosarians. Please sign up for the bus ride on our website. Cutoff point for reserving a seat is on Monday, July 14. For further info please contact event Chair Si Barron at tsclion68@netzero.com. Bus details will be available for the bus riders after July 14 from Chris Casteel of Prestige Limousines.

You can't have fun if you don't participate. Come out for a day of fun while we help support two great parades.

England Travelers Get Together

Hello, fellow travelers and potential fellow travelers:

It's time for a little get-together! Please join us at 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday, July 29, at my home, 2423 Remington Drive, West Linn, to meet others, talk about the trip, and get answers to any questions you may have. Ben Stanford from Collette Vacations will be here. We are now less than ten months from departure to England, Scotland and Wales. We'll spend four nights in London, one night in a castle in Wales, two nights in Edinburgh, one night in York and two nights in Stratford.

At least 44 people have paid their deposit, so the first bus is full. We are hoping to fill a second bus, which will require 26 additional passengers. If you have not made your reservation, there is still time to be part of this fun, informational and educational excursion! Deadline for the initial installment of $480 per person is Nov. 10. Total price is $3,999 per person, double occupancy, and includes airfare. Final payment is due Feb. 13.

I hope to see you on July 29!

Hillsboro Fun

Perfect weather, a large and enthusiastic crowd and plenty of white suits all added up to the perfect parade.

If you were wondering how the Royal Rosarians manage to stay in perfect step, wonder no more! Thanks drummers.

Following the perfect parade was the perfect Purely Social event at the home of Gene and Sue Horton. There was plenty of food and an abundance of Rosarian camaraderie.

If you were wondering what makes a Purely Social perfect, wonder no more! Thanks Rick and Gene.

Jim Nielson's Truisms

This Issue's "Truism"

"Life is a dream for the wise, a game for the fool, a comedy for the rich, a tragedy for the poor."

-- Sholom Aleichem

(The late Jim Nielson, Prime Minister in 1979, was famous for his "truisms" which he happily shared in each issue of the Royal Update from its launch in 2005 until his death in 2011. Jim was knighted under the rose Sutter's Gold, pictured. Truisms now are either from Jim's archives or are quotations Duke Peter thinks Jim would like. If you'd like to suggest a quotation please email it to Peter.)
