Astoria Regatta Parade and Rose Planting

Saturday, August 13

It's a comfortable easy march through the streets of historic Astoria. Up one street and back down to the starting point. The crowds are enthused and Royal Rosarian participation is immensely appreciated. Join us for the Grand Land Parade at 12:00 p.m. Rosarians should assemble by 11:30 a.m. at 16th and Exchange Street. Whites, capes, hats and gloves are appropriate attire and women should wear pants.

Better yet, ride Rosie the bus to Astoria. It will leave at 9:15 a.m. from Sunset Presbyterian Church, will arrive in time for the parade (there will not be a Rose Planting) and then will transport passengers to Rick and Marie Saturn's home where all kind of fun things will be happening. Click on the link below to sign up for the bus. Questions can be directed to Bill Barry.

This year's P.M. Ball will be held at the Red Lion Hotel at Jantzen Beach, a perfect venue to enjoy the Columbia River and to enjoy your favorite dance music. ## Recent Royal Rosarian Summer Photos

The Royal Rosarian Traveling Float is shown here as it rolls through the streets of Seattle in the Seafair's Torchlight Parade last weekend. Prime Minister Rick Saturn and First Lady Marie enjoyed the ride.

This Issue's "Truism"

"I don't mind what congress does as long as they don't do it in the streets and frighten the horses."

--Josh Billings

(The late Jim Nielson, Prime Minister in 1979, was famous for his "truisms" which he happily shared in each issue of the Royal Update from its launch in 2005 until his death in 2011. Jim was knighted under the rose Sutter's Gold, pictured. Truisms now are either from Jim's archives or are quotations Duke Peter thinks Jim would like. If you'd like to suggest a quotation please email it to Peter.)
