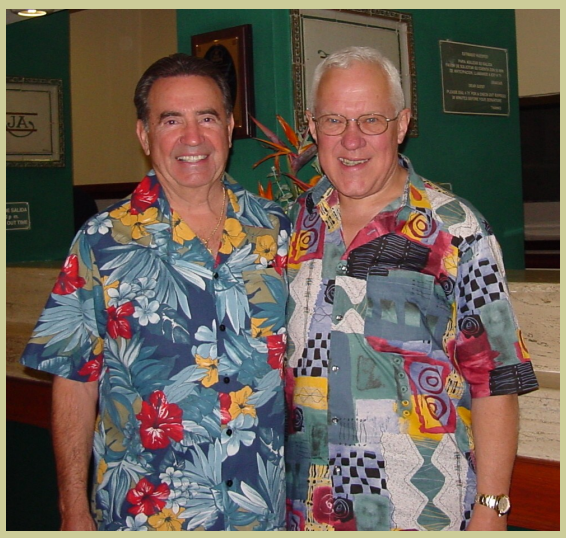
Celebrating the Rich History of the Royal Rosarians and the Portland Rose Festival

1939 Prime Minister Wilbur Hood had a police motorcycle escort. And yes, that's a rose on the officer's Harley!

Dukes Ed Honneycut and Don Henderson accidently wore similar shirts on Dennis Brookshire's Prime Minister's Trip to Guadalajara. Great minds think alike?



This historical program was typical of the promotional efforts expended to create enthusiasm within the citizens of Portland. Trivia question: if the Rose Festival started in 1907 and celebrated its centennial in 2007, why did it celebrate its 50th anniversary in 1958 and its 75th in 1983? Maybe Duke Bob Strader knows.

2020-21 Rosarian Council Assignments and Responsibilities

2020-21 Prime Minister Korrie Hoeckendorf has her Council ready to start when the Royal Rosarian year officially starts October 1 and ready to be installed at the Prime MInister's Ball now scheduled for October 10 at Aurora Colony Vineyards.

Council members and assignments of each follows. Chairs of events are shown where known at this time.

For the Good of the Organization

Thanks, Norb Murray

Norb has been a fine Royal Update editor but he and Lady Leah are planning to move to Idaho.

Norb volunteered as editor four years ago, accepting the job when asked by his sponsor, the founder of the Royal Update, Duke Peter Glazer. Peter knew Norb could do the job because Norb had put out an excellent newsletter when he was the District Governor of Rotary (District 5100--about 75 clubs).

Do you have experience in journalism or newsletter writing? Norb's move to Idaho leaves incoming Prime Minister Korrie looking for a replacement. For now, all Korrie and the "committee" want is for Rosarians with expierience to help out interim editors Tom Marantette and Peter Glazer (what could be more fun than working with Tom?)

The Royal Update was designed to promote upcoming Rosarian events and activities. When it was founded in 2005 a companion publication, the Reminder, recapped and highlighted events and activities that had taken place.

As we resume normalcy, and hopefully a full slate of Rosarian activities, Prime Minister Korrie needs your help getting out the word in advance of all upcoming events and activities.

As Norb Murray put it, Royal Rosarians are a wonderful, creative, dedicated and, most of all, fun-loving group. We are going to get back to that, and soon, if Korrie and her leadership team can possibly do it.

Can you help? Maybe agree to work with Tom and Peter to write an article or two? If you are interested please contact Tom Marantette (tjm@atiyehbros.com) or incoming PM Korrie.

Peter & Tom

Jim Nielson's Truisms

“If at first you don't succeed, before you try again, stop to figure out what you did wrong.”

- anonymous

(The late Jim Nielson, Prime Minister in 1979, was famous for his "truisms" which he happily shared in each issue of the Royal Update from its launch in 2005 until his death in 2011. Jim was knighted under the rose Sutter's Gold, pictured. Truisms now are either from Jim's archives or are quotations Duke Pete Glazer thinks Jim would like. If you'd like to suggest a quotation please email it to Peter.)
