

What do I wear?

Fun Night - Thursday June 4th

For a White Night Masquerade, the goal is a blend of crisp, clean aesthetics and a touch of mystery. Since the vibe is "fun and casual," feel free to skip the stiff formal wear and opt for comfortable white staples—think white denim, airy linen shirts, or a simple sundress. The real magic is in the accessories, so grab a mask that expresses your personality and maybe add some metallic accents or sparkle to make the white pop. It's all about looking sharp while staying relaxed enough to hit the dance floor!

Grand Floral Ball – Friday, June 5th

For the Symphony of Roses in Full Bloom Grand Floral Ball choose a floor-length gown or a polished cocktail dress that mixes rich, garden-inspired colors—emerald, blush, lavender, gold, or deep rose to echo the “in-bloom” theme. This is black tie formal or semi formal. This event showcases the new Queen of Rosaria as she begins her reign. Check the royalrosarians.com photo albums for prior ball photos.

Queens Garden Party – Saturday, June 6th

Rosarian Attire: White uniform, capes, gloves, no hats. Guests: Garden party attire – polished yet practical.
